Secretary Moody Plans More Work for Officers.

Admiral Merry and every naval officer at the Honolulu Naval Station may receive shortly from Washington a 1 copy of a circular letter which Secretary Moody of the Navy Department has just issued, in which he has prohas just issued, in which he has propounded a number of questions designed to develop information as to the character and extent of their duties

One of these questions is whether the officer addressed cannot, in addition to his present regular duty, perform a portion or all of the duties performed by some other officer or officers at the same station, or in other words, if he does not think the number of officers at that particular station can be reduced without detriment to the service. Another question is whether certain duties now devolving upon naval officers on shore cannot be properly performed by civilians. Flach officer is also asked if he does not think that the interest of the naval service requires that he should go to sea.

Although Secretary Moody believes that a certain amount of shore service is necessary to the proper professional education of a naval officer, he is convinced that every commissioned officer in the navy should spend most of his time at sea. If the responses to his circular are favorable to the Secretary's idea, it is probable that hereafter the shore detail will come at longer intervals than under the present system, and will be of shorter duration, except among high ranking officers, for whom sea commands are not available. The Secretary is also said to be considering the advisability of reviving the old policy of placing officers on waiting orders with reduced pay, when there is no special work for them to do at sea or on shore. This would apply principally to officers who have reached command rank, as there will always be plenty of work for junior officers, principally on shipboard.

PRISON WILL NOT OPEN FOR AH WO

Governor Dole Refuses to Exercise Executive Clemency in His Behalf.

The application of Ah Wo for a pardon has been refused by Governor Dole upon the recommendation of the Attorney General. The report is made upon the case by Assistant Attorney General Douthitt upon whose recommendation Attorney Dole made an adverse report to the governor.

The following is the report of Mr.

Territory of Hawaii. Office of the Attorney General. Honolulu, H. I., July 22, 1902.

E. P. Dole, Attorney General of the Territory of Hawali.

Dear Sir:-I understand that a petition for a pardon on behalf of one Ah Wo has een presented to His Excellency the Governor. In regard to said Ah Wo and the crime for which he was convicted, I have to say as follows: Ah Wo together with one Nishyama were indicted by the grand jury of this Ter-ritory upon a charge of robbery in the first degree. The robbery was upon a Japanese woman here in Honolulu. I prosecuted them at the May Term, 1902, of the Circuit Court at Honolulu, and they were convicted. It appears that Ah Wo, in company with Nishyama, went to the house of the Japanese nine o'clock. At the time they arrived the Japanese woman was preparing to retire for the night. After knocking at the door they were admitted into the room, and immediately Ah Wo presented a pistol at the breast of the Japanese woman and demanded money of Commission Merchants her, threatening to kill her if she did not comply with his request. Finally, woman one evening between eight and acting under the fear of these threats, she yielded and gave Ah Wo the sum of twenty dollars. It appeared from the testimony at the trial that Ah Wo was the prime mover in the enterprise: it was he who held the pistol; it was he who made the threats; and it was he who got the money. Ah Wo is a young Chinese of fair

English education, speaks English fluently, and seems to be a man of considerable intelligence. Evidently, he knew exactly what he was doing on the evening of this occurrence.

I further state that there was another charge of robbery in the first degree pending against both these defendants. Upon conviction of the first harge and sentence imposed, I was under the impression that justice would be subserved by entering a nolle prosegui so far as the other charge was concerned. In this case the evidence shows that Ah Wo entered a place where a gambling game was being carried on, armed with a revolver and wearing a policeman's badge, and either through terror of the revolver, which he threatened to use, or by his statement that he was an officer and that the deputy sheriff was just outside, or by both of said means, compelled a delivery of the money in the ossession of those robbed.
The offense of which these defendants was convicted is punishable by Section 116 of the Penal Laws of 1897 by imprisonment at hard labor for life, or any number of years. In my opin-Rules and regulations furnished upon ion the sentence of five years for a crime of this gravity was not only not excessive, but was extremely lenient. The men were not under the influence of liquor upon the occasion in question, and, as far as I know, there were WM. J. HILLS no extenuating circumstances in this case. Therefore, I can see no reason why executive clemency should be exercised. I have the honor to be. Sir. Respectfully yours. E. A. DOUTHITT. Assistant to the Attorney General.
